Summer of a Thousand Smiles

Your Child’s Ticket to a Jewish Camp Experience

Goldsmith Early Childhood Education Center of Chizuk Amuno Congregation
Welcome to Camp!

The Goldsmith Early Childhood Education Center Summer Camp offers FUN, friendship, and adventure for children between 18 months and five years of age. The camp session features sports, drama, art, music, cooking, nature, water play, and Shabbat within a creative and caring Jewish environment. Each camp week is filled with ruah, spirit, and has a theme that emphasizes a Jewish communal value and a commitment to the Jewish people. Highlights for the children are our weekly “specials” that correspond to the week’s theme. Our dedicated and responsible staff is carefully selected for their skill and experience working with children. They help create a lifelong love of learning and Jewish living.

Kiddie Klass

Enjoy a caring, stimulating, and FUN program with other parents and children. Splash in the sprinkler, share in songs, create masterpieces in art, and explore both indoor and outdoor play. This is a great introduction to camp, pre-school, Jewish values, and social relationships.

Two-Year-Olds

As a child’s first Jewish camp experience without parents, Goldsmith Early Childhood Education Center offers a nurturing environment for children to grow and explore. Our goal is to expand children’s horizons by providing developmentally appropriate, creative, and fun play experiences within a Jewish environment. Activities include arts and crafts, dramatic play, music, sports, water play, and Shabbat celebrations.

Three-to-Five-Year-Olds

A delightful introduction to camp for younger children. Hanikhim, campers, participate in a wide variety of hands-on-experiences including arts and crafts, cooking, music, nature exploration, water play, sports, and Shabbat celebrations. By participating in developmentally age-appropriate activities, your child will have the opportunity to explore and interact while building a sense of confidence, competence, and self-esteem.
