Hazzan Search Committee Announced

Jenny Gamliel and Antony Rosen to Co-Chair

Chizuk Amuno President, Jason A. Blavatt, has announced that Jenny Gamliel and Antony Rosen will co-chair the Search Committee for the selection of our new Hazzan. Working with the Cantors Assembly of Conservative Judaism, the search committee will lead a year-long process of defining the position, vetting and interviewing potential candidates, bringing finalists to the congregation, and involving our members in the process along the way.

Similar to our recently concluded, successful rabbinic search, the planning and subsequent recruiting process will be strategic, inclusive, and transparent. Our goals and objectives, informed by our members, will focus on satisfying our needs, while allowing the opportunity to aspire and imagine. You will continue to be apprised of the status of the process and have the opportunity to provide feedback by speaking with our committee members or writing to search@chizukamuno.org. We will conduct the entire process in a professional manner, so as to exhibit Chizuk Amuno in the most favorable light.

We are pleased to announce the full Hazzan Search Committee with our thanks for their dedication and service to the congregation and community: Sandy Abramoff, Marci Aronchick, Yifaat Asher, Marc Attman, Jay Baraban, Jerry Buxbaum, Jeff Cooper, Arnie Feiner, Judy Gerstenblith, Barry Gittlen, Jane Kahn, Rena Lapidus, Laura Reaven, Erika Schon, Meira Silverstein, Jeff Snyder, and Charlee Sterling. Bob Hallock and Sandi Moffet will represent the Executive Committee and Rabbi Gruenberg and Glenn Easton will staff the committee.

As Hazzan Perlman becomes Hazzan Emeritus following the High Holy Days, an Interim Hazzan will be engaged and along with Rabbi Gruenberg, Rabbi Wechsler, Rudy Stoler and staff, all of our cantorial tasks and b'nei mitzvah preparation will continue with full attention and care.

Additional information about our Hazzan Search will be shared in HaHodesh and through emails as the process begins in earnest in the fall. Please write to search@chizukamuno.org with any suggestions, questions, thoughts, or concerns. Your involvement and input is needed and important.

Our thanks to the members of the Hazzan Search Committee for their time, leadership, and assistance.
