

Socially Distanced, Spiritually Connected: A Community-Wide Elul Experience

Beginning Thursday morning, August 20

Ending Friday morning, September 18

Join the greater Baltimore Jewish community for a month of Jewish learning and reflection, preceding the High Holy Days.

8:00-8:30 a.m. every day (except Shabbat)

Register today at
associated.org/elulexperience

Zoom link will be provided in your confirmation email.

Learn more about the series and view the schedule of events at naalehbaltimore.org/elul

Questions? Contact Shirley Hott at shott@naalehbaltimore.org or 410-843-7560.

Participating Organizations:

4Front Baltimore, Baltimore Hebrew Congregation, Beth Am Synagogue, Beth El Congregation, Beth Israel Congregation, Beth Tfiloh Congregation, Bolton Street Synagogue, Chevrei Tzedek Congregation, Chizuk Amuno Congregation, Columbia Jewish Congregation, Congregation Netivot Shalom, Har Sinai-Oheb Shalom Congregation, Hinenu: The Baltimore Justice Shtiebl, Jewish Community Center of Greater Baltimore, Jewish Volunteer Connection, Jews United for Justice, Macks Center for Jewish Education, Moses Montefiore Anshe Emunah Congregation, Na'aleh: The Hub for Leadership Learning, Pearlstone Center, Pikesville Jewish Congregation, Repair the World and Temple Isaiah

Na'aleh, a proud agency of The Associated: Jewish Federation of Baltimore, depends on the funding it receives from The Associated's Annual Campaign. Now, more than ever in its 100 year history, our Associated network needs your support. Together we are addressing the urgent and critical needs of those most affected by the current coronavirus pandemic while ensuring the health and vitality of our community members through social services and connections to meaningful Jewish experiences.

Donate today at associated.org/give.

Na'aleh is an agency of The Associated

Na'aleh
THE HUB FOR LEADERSHIP LEARNING

